Introduction to Improv/Intermediate Improv: July 24th-28th

Instructors: Nick Condon and Justin Searls

This weeklong workshop teaches and reinforces the fundamentals of Improv Comedy including basic scene work, storytelling, improv games and the infamous "Yes, And". Beginning students will learn heightened listening/communication skills, improved confidence and teamwork in a fun, supportive and creative environment.

Intermediate students will learn and play more complex improv games. We'll also dive into "Long-form Improv", a more free-form narrative style that focuses on "Truth in Comedy".

This workshop will culminate in an Improv Showcase on Sunday July 30th.

Cost $65
